Apologies for the delayed response all, been travelling.

I'll volunteer myself for the Validator selection committee, though I'm happy to defer to others that would like to participate.

Chris

Thanks James and all who voted

0007 passes

Does anyone have a nominee for the Validator selection committee? So far I've nominated Josh (who has accepted). Anyone else?

Ok and I'll vote to support as well - that gives us 4 out of 7

One more in support and we pass

Zuehlke, James, Aman?

Subject: CIP 0006 and CIP 0007 (revised)

Hello everyone

As a reminder, CIP 0006 passed. That means we need to elect a 3 person committee responsible for approving referred Validators. If you would like to volunteer and/or nominate anyone for the committee, please respond to this thread ASAP. I'd like to nominate one of our newest SVs, Josh, to be a member of the selection committee. Josh, do you accept the nomination?

I got some actionable feedback from a few of the SVs about the original CIP 0007. Two things became clear in my conversations:

1. Cap the potential size of the incentive - I have proposed a 20 reward weight cap in this revised version (previously it was possible to issue a total of 40)
2. This incentive shouldn't be restricted to just SVs - I have proposed expanding the incentive to include Validators as well

Thanks to everyone who took the time to reach out and provide feedback. I'd still prefer this feedback be provided in these email threads so we can all hear directly from each other but don't hesitate to speak with me if you find that more efficient or comfortable.

I'm proposing that this revised CIP 0007 will be open to vote no later than Thursday, March 21st. Remember, not voting will be interpreted to mean that you support the CIP while we are still in the TestNet phase.

Thank you
